

PRIVACY POLICY

The privacy of the users of this site is very important to this Big Brothers Big Sisters agency (BBBS). BBBS respects all concerns about maintaining strict privacy. Any information divulged to BBBS is kept in confidence.

Personally identifiable information is not collected by this web site unless specifically submitted by users via an electronic mail message, a phone call, or by postal mail. All information is kept confidential.

We do not sell, rent, share, or otherwise disclose mailing lists or other personally identifiable information. BBBS will not maintain records on individuals without permission.

"Cookies" are enabled on this web site in order to track use of the online resources. Users may disable cookies on their browser if they do not want to be logged in automatically. The server of this web site's Internet Service Provider collects information about the date and time in which the web site was accessed and the Internet address of the web site from which users link to the site. This information may be used to analyze web traffic to the site. E-mail addresses and other personally identifiable information are not collected or available.

Disclaimer

BBBS makes no representations, warranties or guarantees, express or implied, regarding the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, non-infringement or merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or use of any information, products or services contained in this website or of any information, products or services available on websites that are accessible by links found on this website.

BBBS expressly disclaims any responsibility or liability for any loss or damage whatsoever suffered by any user of this website or any websites that are accessible by links found on this website caused by or arising from any inaccuracies or omissions in or from any use of or reliance on any information, products or services available on this website, the links to other sites contained in this website or any information, products or services available on such sites.
